

The Ties that Bind

A weekend retreat with Roger B.

The Greek definition of religion means "to bind together." For us, the questions in Steps 4 - 7 consider "what are we tied/bound to?" We find a myriad of answers: resentment, shame, fear, distrust, our story, our drama, our trauma, our history. When we go through the recovery process, eventually we have to take it ALL through the Steps. We find resistance when we are afraid of what will happen when God, or our Higher Power, removes our attachment to these things. Our biggest challenge is to be honest about what is standing between us and God.
