

NOW HIRING!

Evening Program Facilitator

The Retreat, located in Wayzata, MN is a non-profit organization offering 12-Step based residential, non-residential and virtual recovery programs for those seeking help with alcohol/drug addiction. We currently have a part-time opening for a facilitator in our Evening Program. Our non-residential programs; Evening, 55PLUS and Virtual Recovery, provide support for people in early recovery from alcohol/drug addiction, using the spiritual principles of the 12-Steps as a guide for building a solid foundation as a member of the recovery community. Our supportive, educational, non-clinical, small-groups have an average size of 10-12 women and men and are facilitated by professional staff. Training would start immediately.

Responsibilities/Requirements:

- Experience facilitating groups is required, experience can be in a variety of settings/fields; addiction recovery (clinical, non-clinical, community based), education, training, non-profit sector
- Facilitate small groups, following The Retreat's Evening Program curriculum guide/handbook
- Create and maintain a small group environment and process that is welcoming, supportive and provides a safe space for all participants
- Teach participants how to live the spiritual principles of the 12-Steps, sharing personal experience when applicable
- Complete attendance sheets and other administrative tasks as required
- Monitor group/participants and communicate issues/problems to staff as needed
- A license in the addiction/mental health field can be helpful but is not required
- Represent The Retreat with integrity, openly sharing the spirit of recovery
- Background and experience in 12-Step recovery is required
- Self-motivated, ability to work independently
- Working knowledge of Microsoft Office Suite and basic internet navigation skills

Compensation: This is an hourly position, starting at $25/hr.

Confidentiality: Must adhere to and respect Retreat policies regarding past or current guest/participant rights, anonymity and privacy. This covers any written or verbal communication.
