

The 12 Steps as a Living Process

A weekend retreat with Roger Bruner.

Steps 10 - 12 are often referred to as "maintenance" Steps. But, what are we maintaining? Sometimes we need reminding that we are not maintaining the status quo or as a place holder in abstinence - but rather maintaining steady growth by becoming more effective with prayer, meditation and inventory.

How do I use these tools to live a more satisfying life? What are the blocks to my progress? How do I maintain growth, and not let my recovery get stagnant? We will explore these questions, and move beyond these obstacles, together.
