LETTERS FROM GOD: INTUITING & EXPERIENCING OUR HIGHER POWER

Paula Hutchinson & Abby Sue Fisher

Women in Recovery will start the new year with what has become a tradition—intuiting and experiencing our personal Letters from God. Paula Hutchinson and Abby Sue Fisher are back to lead us through this powerful spiritual practice.

This January, as we continue online, we are using the platform Futureme.org to write or upload and submit our letters for future email delivery. While we are not able to physically share our sacred space this year, participants are encouraged to create their own sacred space that evening. (Futureme.org is free of charge and an orientation will be provided during the program.)

Join us as our journey into the Great Reality continues—healing our past and blessing our future!

PAULA HUTCHINSON is a spiritual explorer and an aficionado of personal transformation stories. Paula has led groups in Art as a Spiritual Practice, utilizing various creative tools such as vision boards, black out poetry and art journaling. She particularly likes to share practices that allow us to ground ourselves through simple actions that clear a pathway for our hearts to open and connect to our divine wisdom.

ABBY SUE FISHER is devoted to creative exploration. Her lifelong passion for textiles and writing has led her on a colorful path full of language, arts and cultures. Abby Sue loves meeting people, hearing stories, learning, and cultivating connections. This is her second time participating in Letters from God, and Abby Sue is looking forward to sharing in your collective energy.
