SPEAKER SERIES

FOURTH WEDNESDAY OF THE MONTH

SEPT 28, 2022 AT 7PM

THE ENNEAGRAM (PART 1): CELEBRATING WHAT IS RIGHT ABOUT YOU

Phil GebbenGreen

This is a two-part series. Next month's topic will be The Enneagram: Freeing Ourselves from the Prisons of Our Own Making.

What if there is nothing wrong with you? The Enneagram is a psychological and spiritual tool that helps us see what is powerfully right about ourselves. By studying the nine Enneagram Types and finding our home-base pattern, we can begin to understand and accept why we do what we do, finding the freedom to truly be ourselves.

In September and October, we will:

1. Remember what is good and amazing about ourselves
2. Invite ourselves to take full responsibility for our own thoughts, feelings, and actions
3. Experience the freedom of self-awareness, using the tool of the Enneagram

Read a brief description of all nine Enneagram Types at enneagraminstitute.com.

PHIL GEBBENGREEN is a lifelong learner and teacher interested in big questions like, Why do we do what we do? and What if love is the only real thing? He is a Presbyterian co-pastor with his wife, Luna, and teaches with the Enneagram Prison Project.
